

February 2, 2024, Alaska Rifle Club annual meeting Pizza Man in eagle river AK

1830 a quorum has been met and last year's meeting minutes being read by the members

1835 minutes approved from last year's annual meeting

1836 Tim Silvers giving the president's report discussing money donated the youth shooting clubs, membership flatline, Facebook membership up, telling the membership the club is incorporated and discussing club investments

1843 Wayne Rust giving treasurer report. insurance went up talking about targets and other expenses

1847 Somerset Jones match director for bang and clang giving his report. they are averaging 10 to 12 shooters. there's no more Schuetzen matches

1850 Dave Ewings match director for the bullseye and small-bore long-range silhouette matches giving report. discussing the bullseye clinic and long range silhouette matches

1852 Russ Umeki match director for the high-power matches giving report for the EIC matches. Fees will be lowered and there would be four EIC matches this upcoming year

1854 Craig Kisely match director giving the PRS 22 report explain to membership what PRS 22 is. discussing regionals in June of 2024

1905 Tim Silvers Match director give report. he discussed the vintage matches, the mid-range matches and the long-range matches. discussing the long range matches at Talkeetna, Snowshoe in Kenai and JBER Grezelka. The mid-range matches we'll have a total of 6 matches this year

1916 appreciation of volunteers. Mark Friest was given a lifetime membership. Craig Kisely and David Ewings were given the volunteer of the year awards

1927 5-minute break

1933 called to order

1934 Scott Henderson Borealis Bullseyes given an update on their youth club

1939 Alaska top shots Eric Franklin giving report on their club have 11 kids in the club 11 to 18 years old. seven girls four boys

1946 Alaska eagle eyes Mark Burch given report on their youth club

1950 Tim discussing rifle clinic in April

1959 Jim Stoneking and Jansen Cardy of Birchwood give an update on partnership with Alaska rifle club

2003 Tim given thanks Mat valley shooters and Upper Susitna for the partnership

2038 meeting adjourned and membership voted to move next year's meeting to Birchwood clubhouse. There will be pizza and non-alcoholic drinks provided by club. OK to BYOB for alcohol.

these notes were taken by John Winsor standing in for Chris Tobias who is the Alaska rifle club Secretary.